of Ramaswami Naik (2nd petitioner) who is 21 years of age & they propose to adjust the loan by paying Rs 10/- a month out of their pension ; and for their maintenance they will live upon the pension ~~[redacted]~~ drawn by her mother & also from their private earnings

3) The Mysore Treasury Officer recommends their prayer.

4) For precedent, please see G.O. No 1417-8/3269 of 22-2-1893, wherein an advance of Rs 500/- was sanctioned by Govt. to one Gopal Naik of the Chitaldrug family for the marriage expenses of his son also the then Chief Secretary's note (present Dewan) of 10-2-1893

27/10/10 Rs 500/- as marriage Expense for a pensioner of Rs 8/- seems Crushing and the past bones, I am afraid, have a deleterious effect. A better way to see to grant them some smaller sum of about 300 or so & ask them not to spend anything more. To refuse the past bones perhaps put them into difficulties & they cannot raise any loans in the Open Market & their pensions can't be attached

5) I would refuse the application. If they can repay a loan they can also save if no loan is taken. The proper course is to save the money required for marriage and then marry. The grant of such loans takes away all incentive to thrift & economy on the part of these Stepsdrains.

7) The Mother of the family is stated to be too old to be fit for cooking — Therefore the proposition 21 years old wants to marry not only for continuing the family but also for the sake of securing a wife who would cook and contribute to the economical management of the household — Hence the marriage is represented to be a measure of Economy! —

8) Rs 550 are asked for, repayable by instalments of Rs 10 p.m. to be withheld from the family pension that is now drawing — This may be sanctioned as a special case
